THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVT. OF MYSORE,
General and Revenue Dept.

Sir,

I have the honor to invite your attention to note to article 838 of the British Civil Service Regulations which clearly lays down that leave granted to an officer on Foreign Service, who is permitted to contribute towards pensionary and leave allowances otherwise than in accordance with the Civil Service Regulations will not be recognized by the Government of India. Such being the case, it is doubtful whether casual leave for periods in excess of 5 days to be deducted from privilege leave under articles 172 and 173 of the Mysore Service Regulations can be granted to such officers by the Mysore Government, this kind of leave not being recognized or provided for in the British Civil Service Regulations. The leave of the kind mentioned is virtually privilege leave, and the salary drawn for the periods of such leave by foreign officers who have not wholly qualified for it by service under the mysore government has to be debited to the British and mysore governments according to the rule of proportion vide article 835 Civil Service Regulations which if claimed would be objected to by the government of India. In these circumstances, I think that foreign officers are not eligible for casual leave under articles 172 and 173 of the mysore Service Regulations, and leave granted them in excess of 5 days should be treated as Privilege leave and gazetted as such.

I may mention that in the case of mr Kearns, the Special Excise assistant Commissioner, Government have on more than one occasion granted him casual leave for more than 5 days and when this office deducted the same from Privilege leave earned

I Submit that the salary drawn by m.r Kearns during these periods of casual leave is recoverable from the British government according to the rule of proportion he not having rendered the required service in mysore to qualify for the leave as privilege leave. Enclosure to Sl. No. 5

Copy of letter No. 1984 dated 18th may 1900 from the Special Assistant Excise Commissioner Shemoga Division to the Comptroller to the Government of Mysore:

I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to inform me what amount of (a) Privilege Leave (b) Furlough is due to me at the present moment, and what would be the amount of my pay when on leave under each kind of leave. My service Book is in your office.

Copy of letter No. 6268 of 1st/4th June 1900, from the Comptroller, Government of mysore, to Mr. A.S. Kearns, Special Excise Assistant Commissioner, Shimoga Division:

With reference to his letter No. 1984 dated 18th ultimo requesting a certificate showing the amount of Privilege Leave and furlough at his credit, has the honor to forward herewith, a certificate showing the amount of leave of the former kind at his credit, and to inform him that he should apply to the Accountant General, Madras, for a certificate showing the amount of leave of the latter kind at his credit as a proportionate share of the leave allowances has to be borne by the British Government.

to

Copy of letter No. 69 dated 16th July 1900 from Mr. A.S. Kearns, Special Assistant Commissioner Excise, Shemoga Division to the Comptroller, Government of Mysore.

With reference to your docket No. 6268 dated 1st June ~~1899~~ 1900, granting a certificate intimating that the amount of Privilege Leave due to me was on one month and 18 days on 18th May 1900, I have the honor to state, that I have had no Privilege Leave since 13th February 1895 and that therefore there must be more Privilege Leave due to me than what you state. It appears to me that you have taken into consideration only the amount of leave earned since I have been in this State and from that, deducted the amount of casual leave taken by me. But I would submit that there is no rule or agreement under which Leave due to me was cancelled by my temporary transfer and if the casual leave taken by me be deducted from the Privilege Leave due to me at the time of my taking such casual leave I would still have at this moment 3 months Privilege Leave due to me. I do not understand how I can be made to forfeit leave due to me merely in consequence of the temporary transfer of my service. I solicit the favour of an early reply and I wish to apply for leave.

Copy of letter No from the Comptroller with the Government of Mysore to the Special Assistant Excise Commissioner, Shimoga Division L.No. 830 dated 27th July 1900.

With reference to his letter No 69 dated the 16th instant has the honor to inform that this office can grant a certificate only for the period during which he came under its audit, and to add that for any leave he may have earned in the British Service, the Accountant General has to furnish the necessary certificate and agree to bear the proportionate charge of leave allowances, when only he can take leave for the combined period. Casual leave for more than 5 days at a time are deducted from the Privilege Leave at credit of an officer under article 172 of the Mysore Service Regulations.

Copy of letter No. 422 dated 16th August 1900 from A.S. Reams Esq. Special assistant Excise Commissioner, Shemoga Division to the Comptroller with the Government of Mysore.

With reference to your docket No 830 dated 27th July 1900, and your remark that "Casual leave for more than five days at a time are deducted from the Privilege leave at credit of an officer under article 172 of the Mysore Service Regulations" I have the honor to point out that I do not come under the Mysore Service Regulations in the matter of my Pay, Allowances, Leave &c &c and that under the British Service Regulations Casual absence from duty is not "Leave". Under these circumstances I beg that the certificate granted by you may be revised. I have now put in full three years service in this State and am entitled to 3 months Privilege leave.

Copy of letter No. 524 of 1st September 1900, from A.S. Reams Esqr. Special assistant Excise Commissioner, Shimoga division to the Comptroller, with the Government of mysore.

With reference to the correspondence ending with my letter No. 442 dated the 16th ultimo, regarding the matter of my Privilege leave, I have the honor to state that as I cannot now get the matter settled, and the leave sanctioned within the time I wanted to take the leave, the matter may be dropped, as I cannot now take the leave before April next by which time I shall have three months' leave due me again.

57 Rule of Proportions — When pension or leave allowances are said to be chargeable to several accounts according to the "Rule of Proportions" the meaning is that the charge should be debited to such several accounts in the proportions in which, in the case of pension, the aggregate pay drawn by the officer during the whole of his qualifying service has been paid from them; or in the case of leave allowances, the aggregate salary drawn by the officer during the portion of his service immediately preceding the beginning of his leave which is taken into account in calculating the leave granted to him was charged to such several accounts.

Extracts from the British Civil Service Regulations :-

277. The amount of privilege leave earned by an officer is one-eleventh part of the time during which he has been on duty without interruption; Provided that no privilege leave can be earned by an officer by duty performed while three months such leave is due to him and that whenever duty is interrupted all claim to privilege leave earned theretofore is forfeited. Absence on privilege leave though not counting as duty is not an interruption of duty within the meaning of this article.

'78. The calculation must be made as follows:- One calendar month for every eleven complete calendar months of duty, and one day for every eleven days of the balance.

279. When an officer is first appointed to the Public Service, duty qualifying for Privilege leave does not begin until he takes charge of the office to which he is appointed.

283. The privilege leave due to an officer is the privilege leave which he has earned since the last interruption of duty, less the period during which he has been absent on privilege leave.

291. To an officer who has been on duty, without interruption for eleven calendar months, and who has not, for six calendar months, been absent on privilege leave, the whole or any part of the privilege leave due to him may be granted

※ Article 366 is about the grant of extraordinary leave without allowances.

This article does not refer to casual leave for short periods. Such leave is not recognised and is not subject to any rule. Conditions of Foreign Service of the First Kind.

Explanation

805. The position of the Government of India and the difficulty experienced by Native States and public bodies in obtaining competent officers without its assistance, frequently render it necessary for the Govt., for political or for public reasons, to transfer its officers to the service of such States or bodies. Such transfers would, as a general rule, be impossible if the condition were insisted on, that the officer transferred should give up his privileges as an officer in the service of the Government of India, and the rules prescribed in this part of these Regulations show what financial arrangements are to be made in the case of officers of Government lent or transferred to service paid by Native States, Municipalities and other bodies whose revenues are distinct from the Public revenues of Govt:, such as Courts of Wards, Port Trusts and permitted at the same time to retain their privileges as servants of Government.

806. An officer may not be transferred to Foreign service of the first kind unless the following conditions are complied with:-

(1). The service requires of the officer transferred is one which it is advantageous for public reasons (and not merely in the interest of the officer concerned) should be provided for by a servant of the British Indian Govt.

(ii) The transfer is made by, or with the consent of the Local Govt. under which the officer is serving and also if he is transferred for service under a Native State and the pay offered exceeds Rs 250/- a month, with the consent of the Government of India in the Foreign Department

(iii) The officer transferred has either ten years' qualifying service (for pension) under Government or belongs to one of the following services:- The Indian Civil Service; the Army; the "Commission" of any Non-Regulation Province; the graded Political Departments; the Superior Service of the Public Works (including Railway, Revenue and Account Branches), Telegraph, Survey or Forest Department; the graded Educational Service; the Indian Marine.

iv The officer transferred shall receive only the remuneration agreed upon or sanctioned by the Local Govt. or the Govt. of India, as the case may be, in his behalf

(v) The officer transferred shall remain, while on Foreign Service subject to the General & disciplinary rules which apply to officers on active Govt. Service.

16 ~~11~~ 12

808. Whatever may be the actual pay and allowances drawn by an officer in foreign service from his employers, his salary, for the purpose of calculating his leave allowances and pension, and of requiring a contribution towards the cost of such leave allowances and pension, shall be assumed to be as follows :—

(a) if he is a member of any of the special services mentioned in Article 806 (iii).

~~(a) During the first two years of his service reckoning~~

	Member of the Indian Civil Service	Other Special Services.
(i) During the first two years of his service reckoning from the first day of April next following his arrival in India or date of appointment if he was appointed in India — — — —	400/	350/-
(ii) For each subsequent year of service —	100/-	50/-
Up to a maximum of	2,500/-	Twice the maximum furlough allowance admissible to the officer concerned.

(b). If the officer is not a member of any of the above services, there —

(1) If he belongs to a graded service, his name will be retained on it (as seconded), promotion from grade to grade being given to him in due course and his assumed pay will be that of the grade in which from time to time he is.

(ii). If he does not belong to a graded service, the assumed pay will be will remain that which he last drew when in Govt: employ.

809 (a) From every officer transferred in the manner specified in Article 806 who does not wholly resign the service of the British Govt: or who is not, for reasons special and public reasons, exempted from the operation of the rules in this chapter, a contribution is levied as follows:—

(i) In the case of officers of the special services mentioned in Rule 806(iii) on account of leave allowances (excepting privilege leave) and pension — one-fourth of the assumed pay - x x x

(ii). In the case of others, on account of pension only — one-eighth of the assumed pay.

25A/5

Extract of Articles 835 & 838 of British Civil Service Regulations :—

Enclosure No 1 to 5

835 (a) In return for the contributions prescribed in Article 809 (a) (i) (Foreign Service of the first kind), the Govt. accepts the charge for the officer's pension and also that for his absentee allowances (except on privilege leave when the Govt. will pay only its share, according to the Rule of proportions, calculated on the assumed pay referred to in Article 808 (a), and during which contribution calculated on the share of the leave allowances payable by the foreign body must be paid in the same manner as if the officer were on duty) in the same manner and to the same extent, as if he were in the regular service of the British Government, saving only that the calculation of pension or absentee allowance is based upon the pay upon which he contributes (see Article 808) and not upon the amount which he receives from his foreign employer.

(b) In return for the contribution prescribed in Art. 809(a)(ii), the Govt. accepts the charge for the officer's pension only, but not for his absentee allowances, of which the British Government will therefore only pay its share according to the Rule of Proportions, calculated on the assumed pay referred to in Art. 808 (b).

838. The pension and leave of an officer on Foreign service, whether acting or permanent, are regulated by the rules which apply to officers of the Government of India. And an officer may not get leave unless he actually quits duty and proceeds on leave.

Note.— [The Government of India cannot recognise any leave granted, otherwise than in accordance with these regulations, to an officer on Foreign service who is permitted to contribute towards pensionary & leave allowances or for pensions only under the rule in this Chapter. If such leave is granted to an officer, the Account Officer shall, on the fact coming to his notice, require the leave so granted to be commuted to the leave for which the officer is eligible under rule, and call upon him to refund any allowance drawn by him in excess of the amount admissible under rule. If the officer fails to comply with these conditions, he will be liable to forfeit his previous service under Government, and to cease to have any claim on Government in respect of either pensionary or leave allowances. See also Article 829].

Article 829 The officer transferred must, immediately on his being relieved of his duty under British Government, report to the Accountant General, mentioned in article 828, the date and time on which he made over charge, and furnish particulars regarding his salary in foreign service, and his postal address. He should also report the date on which he takes charge of his appointment in foreign service. Any change in these particulars, and any leave taken by him, should also be reported to the Accountant General, and he must furnish all information which may at any time be required from him by the Accountant General.

837. An officer who contributes for pension only must during privilege leave, pay his contribution in the same manner as if he were on duty, and if, after return to his British appointment, he takes privilege leave, he will receive from the General Revenue, the Govt: share of his leave allowances, according to the Rule of Proportions, and must pay to the General Revenues the contribution required by Article 809 (a)(ii) for that portion of his privilege leave which was earned by his foreign service

Application for Leave.

845- Privilege leave may be granted by the Foreign employer after receiving a report from the Account Officer concerned that it is admissible under rule

846. Applications for any other description of leave should be made through the Foreign employer to the Local Government under which the officer was serving before transfer to Foreign Service.

847. Article 846 does not apply and no report need be called for from the Account Officer under article 845 in cases in which the applicant contributes for pension only [See Article 809(a)(iii)] and no claim arises against the British Govt: for a share of the absentee allowance.

848. An officer must furnish all information which may be required from him by the Account Officer as directed in Article 829. Exact compliance with this rule is absolutely essential which leave is granted under the preceding article.
